

CURBSIDE RECYCLING BASICS WHAT IS RECYCLABLE...AND WHAT IS NOT?

BEVERAGE CONTAINERS

Empty and rinse all containers. Flatten cartons.

RECYCLABLE

- Cartons and boxes
- Plastic bottles and jugs
- Aluminium and bi-metal cans
- Glass containers (e.g. beer bottles, juice bottles)
- Tetra packs (milk, soy and juice only)

NOT RECYCLABLE

- Broken glass containers

CARDBOARD & BOXBOARD

Flatten boxes. Remove lids, liners and packing material. Bundle cardboard with string or twine.

RECYCLABLE

- Appliance / moving boxes
- Pizza boxes
- Cereal and cracker boxes (remove liners)
- Egg cartons
- Frozen juice containers (tin lids removed)
- Paper bags
- Shoe boxes
- Paper towel/toilet paper rolls

NOT RECYCLABLE

- Styrofoam, foam packing material, cardboard/boxboard soiled with anything such as motor oil, paint or food/grease;

GLASS

Empty and rinse all containers.

RECYCLABLE

- Brown, clear, green and blue glass bottles and jars

NOT RECYCLABLE

- Ceramics, cookware, drinking glasses, incandescent bulbs, mirrors, windows, windshields

PAPER

Secure shredded paper in a paper bag or cereal box.

RECYCLABLE

- Catalogues
- Mail and envelopes (plastic windows OK)
- Magazines
- Newspaper and flyers (glossy OK)
- Office paper (e.g. construction paper, printed paper)
- Telephone books

NOT RECYCLABLE

- Carbon paper, padded envelopes; photographs and photo paper, thermal fax paper

PLASTICS & PLASTIC BAGS

Empty, rinse and flatten all containers.

RECYCLABLE

ONLY items labelled with the numbers 1-7 such as:

-  Soda, water, mouthwash and mustard containers
-  Detergent bottles, milk jugs, shampoo bottles
-  PVC pipe
-  Plastic bags, squeezable bottles (e.g. honey)
-  Medicine bottles
-  Bakery Trays
-  Large reusable water bottles, juice jugs

NOT RECYCLABLE

- Styrofoam, disposable diapers, compact disks, credit cards, hoses, pools, shoes, tarps, toys, utensils

TIN & ALUMINIUM

Empty and rinse all containers. Remove lids and labels.

RECYCLABLE

- Tin and steel can and lids
- Aluminium food containers
- Aluminium foil wrap and foil trays

NOT RECYCLABLE

- Containers soiled with anything such as food or grease